After hearing the case Mayor Simpson After hearing the case Mayor Simpson said the evidence was not very positive, but was sufficient to justify him in referring the case to the grand jury. He fixed the bond at $500. For committing an assault on Gertrude Stewart, colored, Thomas Bandheim, also colored, was fined, $10

Literary Meeting.

The literary meeting of the Epworth League, held last evening in the lecture room of the M. E. Church South, was attended by a large audience. Rev. J. F. Prettyman, paster of Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington, gave a talk on his visit to Epworth, England, the home of the Wesley family. A very pleasing musi-cal and literary program was rendered. Among those who took part were Miss Re-becca Pollard, Miss Alice Thomas, Mrs. H. S. Barker and Mr. Arthur Yundt, the latter of Washington.

General Matters.

Mr. Alexander Murray and Mr. Thomas L. Rust of this city were among the students who passed the final examinations at the Columbian University, Washington, this spring. Mr. Murray will receive his degree of doctor of medicine and Mr. Rust his degree of doctor of dental surgery at the commencement exercises in June.

Mayor Simpson has instructed the officers of the police force that they are not to consider themselves subject to the orders of the civil magistrates in the city. This state ment from the mayor was occasioned by the action of a justice of the peace recently in calling upon a policeman to discharge some service in a civil proceeding. The mayor says that such work is the duty of con-
